The immigration authorities will use the information in this application form to process the permit for which you are applying. This information may also be used in relation to later applications and applications from family members. The information will be registered in the computer system for immigrant and refugee cases (DUF).

Your information may be passed on to other relevant authorities in order to check and obtain more details of the information you have given. Where necessary, information about you will also be collected from other Norwegian and foreign authorities, including the police. This will not be carried out where consideration for your safety so determines. If you are granted a permit, information on this will be entered in the National Population Register.

You can contact UDI for more information about our use of your details, your right of inspection in this regard and how you can ask for the details to be changed. You will find more information about the treatment of your personal details at www.udi.no.

I hereby confirm that the information given in this application is correct and complete. I am aware that, under the General Civil Penal Code, act no. 10 of 22 May 1902, section 166 and the Immigration Act, act no. 64 of 24 June 1988, section 47, first paragraph, subparagraph b, it is a punishable offence to give materially incorrect or clearly misleading information, including omission of information of material significance. In addition to criminal charges, breach of the Immigration Act or the Norwegian Penal Code may lead to rejection or expulsion and registration in the Schengen Information System (SIS). Any permit granted based on incorrect or incomplete information may be withdrawn.

Comments from the police/foreign service mission

If the application is submitted through a Norwegian foreign mission in a country other than the one of which the applicant is a citizen, the applicant must give details of the grounds for residing in the country in question (type of permit or similar), cf. section 12 of the Immigration Regulations. Details must also be given of how long the applicant has been residing in this country. It must also be stated whether it is possible for the applicant to return, and whether there are any deadlines for this.

Information on accompanying documents – see also www.udi.no

All documents must be supplied in their original form or as a copy certified by a public authority or other body with such competence. The documents must be translated into English or Norwegian by an approved translator.

Where the application is lacking any information or documents, these must be obtained.

If the application is submitted for processing without satisfactory documentation, it may be rejected on these grounds. Please note that you may be required to supply documentation in addition to that stated below.

The requirement for documentation can vary from country to country. If you are applying from abroad and need more information, you can contact the Norwegian embassy/consulate in the country from which you are applying. You will find a list of Norwegian embassies at www.norway.info.

All applicants must provide the following:

- A recent passport photo
- Copies of all pages of all the travel documents you have had in the past year.
If you do not have a travel document, you must enclose a copy of your other identity documents.
- Original receipt for the fee paid
- If you (the applicant) are under 18, enclose documentation from a public authority showing who has parental responsibility for you. If parental responsibility is shared, you must enclose a declaration from the other parent consenting to you living in Norway.

When applying for a work permit or residence permit, it is a basic requirement that subsistence is ensured. It is also a basic requirement that housing is ensured for a first-time application. This must be documented.

You must also include information specifically linked to the grounds for your permit application:

Application for a family immigration permit

- Your birth certificate (first-time application only)
- A certificate confirming your relationship to the principal person (first-time application only). This may, for example, be a marriage certificate if the grounds for the application is marriage, or a birth certificate/adoption papers if you are under 18 and applying to be reunited with one or both parents. The same applies if you are applying to be reunited with your own children, or if you have children who live in Norway and are applying for a permit to visit them for a period of up to nine months (parental visit).
- Documentation of subsistence in the form of last tax assessment. Wage earners must also include an employment contract and their last three wage slips. Self-employed applicants must submit last year's accounts. Periodic benefits must be documented.
- If you have other documentation that may have a bearing on the application, this should be included. Examples of these include a statement of single status, death certificate, birth certificate of Norwegian residents, divorce certificate, subsistence guarantee declaration, doctor's certification of pregnancy, etc.

Application for a permit linked to a particular job

Our website contains information about the documentation requirements relating to different types of work. Please note that these requirements vary depending on the kind of work. Here are the documentation requirements for just some of the main categories.

Application for a permit as a skilled worker/specialist

- The form "Offer of employment", or a standardised employment contract, including:
 - Description of work and job title
 - Duration of the employment
 - Details of pay and working conditions (documented by wage slips for renewal application)
 - Documentation of your education (first-time application only)
 - Documentation of previous relevant work experience (first-time application only)
- NB: If you are applying for a permit for part-time work or holiday work, for example if you are a student, you must use the form "Application for a permit for part-time work and holiday work".

Application for a permit to establish/run a business

- Documentation that there is a financial basis for the business
- A satisfactory description of the type of business, financing plans and budget and a statement from any other authority to the effect that necessary permits will be granted.

Application for a permit as a seasonal worker

- The form "Offer of employment" (see information on documentation for work permits above)
- If you are applying for a permit to carry out short-term seasonal work in agriculture or forestry, complete the form "Offer of short term seasonal work in agriculture or forestry" instead of the "Offer of employment" form.

Application for a work permit as an au pair

- The form "Standard employment contract for au pairs"

Application for a work permit as a trainee

- The form "Standardised contract for trainees"
- Documentation of education

Application for a permit to work for a non-profit or humanitarian organisation in Norway

- The form "Standardised contract for employees in a non-profit or humanitarian organisation"

Application for a permit to work as a musician

- Contract relating to one specified, continuous period with one or more employers

Application for a student permit

- Offer of a place or invitation from the educational institution in Norway
- Documentation that you have housing, e.g. a lease
- Documentation if you will be staying with a host family
- Documentation of means of subsistence and financing plan
- For renewal: Statement from the educational institution on study progression and whether a continued permit for part-time work is considered to interfere with the applicant's studies.
